

PROPOSAL DEVELOPMENT

Inside Moves is a national leader in the delivery of winning government oral presentations, providing quality proposals to over eight of the top ten federal contractors. For over fourteen years, we have trained over 1500 presenters, established an impressive 85% win rate, and won over $20 billion in contract awards for our customers. Our proposals have always received the highest marks by government evaluators. We like to say that we are 100% effective, always putting you in a position to win. The one thing we can't control is price or politics. We take your great ideas, weave them into believable stories to ensure your team gets winning results!

What Makes Us Different?

Our trainers and coaches are infused with passion and energy and an innate ability to inspire and encourage the teams they are assigned to. We know what it takes to stand up and deliver. Our training team brings real life experiences and lessons learned from having worked on over 150 government proposals. All are certified proposal managers.

Simple or Complex Presentations

From oral presentations to live technical demonstrations, Inside Moves can help you succeed and gain the edge over your competition. Inside Moves is known for our ability to support proposals on many levels. We know you are always trying to be more cost effective with your proposal dollars. We can provide supplemental support by parachuting-in to your process at intervals and/or utilizing effective videoconferencing or webcasting capabilities. We are also used to burning both ends of the candle at your proposal facility for the life cycle of the project. We are all about "whatever it takes" to get winning results!

Great Presenters are Made, Not Born.

Inside Moves coaches help non-professional speakers be more comfortable, confident and effective in front of your target audience. We assist the presentation team in becoming technological tour guides. Our instructors integrate a variety of creative approaches and staging techniques into the training of your team, resulting in a high degree of excellence and professionalism in the overall presentation.

Great Graphics Equal Great Stories

Inside Moves' gifted multimedia artists will help mold your ideas into stories to give you results in a visually exciting way. We can provide range of multimedia services from conceptual design to full video production to support any project. Our creative team is experienced in all facets of the government presentation and proposal arena and will bring your presentation to life in a logical and dynamic manner.
